Representative Snell summarizes his "remedies" in this way:

"Governor Roosevelt would regulate the Stock Exchange so as to curb harmful speculation. He would control the issuance of securities and provide for greater publicity in connection with security issues. He would compel the separation of commercial and investment banking. He promises better supervision of banks. He proposes a reform of the Federal Reserve System."

Surely Mr. Roosevelt must know that most of these subjects have been discussed in congress; that even Senator Glass has not yet been their children away on trips with lawyers. able to "reform" the Federal Reserve; that the New York Stock Ex- you change has been under investigation by a senate committee. But says entrust their offspring with even the Representative Snell, "the amazing fact is that all of these reforms closest relatives. could have been initiated by the governor of the state of New York any time during the last four years, and that the governor should know that there is no constitutional basis for federal government regulation of the Stock Exchange or the issuance of securities by business concerns."

On the other hand, Mr. Snell reminds us that "there are no legal likely you will allow them an inbarriers to state regulation." He adds that all important issues have their origin in New York; that "the principal investment banking houses are there located. The state has jurisdiction over them. If Governor Roosevelt really wants to stem the flow of unsound securities and control banking commissions, could there be a more effective place to apply his theories than at the source?'

Hindsight is better than foresight. Looking backward the governor from the control of the home folk. is able to condemn stock issues and banking abuses, yet while his own state was suffering severely, when the biggest of all bank failures occurred in New York, what was he doing? Nothing. To quote Mr. Snell, "he has remained silent and inert until today," and he speaks now, not as an "executive clothed with power, but as an eager seeker for higher you a big responsibility office." And Mr. Snell asks, "Does he promise the country the kind of supervision that preceded the failure of the Bank of the United States, a children is not enough to warrant state institution supervised by the State Banking Department?"

He let things go to smash in New York, but under the wise leadership of President Hoover the federal government, through the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, has been of immense assistance and has protected 15,000,000 depositors.

Trust me is the plea of Mr. Roosevelt. Why? Is the country going to gamble with fate under a new administration? Hasn't it had enough of gambling?-Philadelphia Inquirer.

SOMETIMES WE WONDER

Must We Agree? Not Necessarily It Would Be a Bore

By MARSHALL MASLIN

Sometimes letters come from people who wish to be wholly frank. So they write: "I read your articles and sometimes I like them and sometimes I don't. Sometimes I agree with you but other times I don't see how you can hold the opinions you seem to have. I hope you don't mind my frankness."

No. How could I? How could anybody mind? How could anybody expect anybody else to agree completely? It is not possible. It is a wild goose chase, a vain endeavor, it cannot be expected and as an ideal is it should not be desired.

Plan To Reduce Lake Cargo Coal

Coal From Canadian Destinations Will Be 18 Cents Cheaper, Commission Approves

RAILROAD WILL FILE TARIFFS

(International News : arvice) WASHINGTON, Aug.-The Interstate Commerce Commission has granted special permission to the railroads on whose lines coal is produced for movement across the lakes to Canada, to file tariffs in one day's notice reducing the rates on lake cargo coal from Canadian destina-

It was explained that the 18 cents represents approximately the difference in the value of the United States and Canadian currency, based on the rates of exchange of 88 cents applied to the Ohio districts rate of $1.43, plus 8 cents handling charge. It is proposed to apply this 18 cents from all districts comprising the lake cargo coal adjustment.

The permission requested by the fied friends today railroads is to provide publication Neither he nor Elkus was hurt, of the following note in connection but the plane was wrecked.

Charles Chaplin Protests Entrance Of Sons In Movies

Will Challenge Right Of Divorced Wife To Take Sons Into Picture Business

(International News Service) HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 24.—Charles Chaplin, film comedian, within 48 hours will file in court a petition challenging the right of his divorced wife, Lita Grey Chaplin, to place their young sons, Charles, Jr., 7, and complished by readjustment of Earl, "Tommy," 6, in motion pic-

Chaplin said he either would seek an injunction, or ask modification of an agreement entered into with Mrs. Chaplin over the children at

Mrs. Chaplin is under contract with the Fox Film Studio to appear in five pictures with the two boys. Chaplin to date has paid $1,000 a month for support of his sons in addition to the $650,000 he gave Mrs. Chaplin in settlement when they were divorced five years ago.

"Chaplin believes that entrance of his sons into motion pictures at their tender ages will interfere with their normal development and take from them the pleasures enjoyed by other children of similar ages," said the comedian's attorney. "I'll await developments," Mrs. Chaplin's terse comment.

Germany's Sheet Anchor

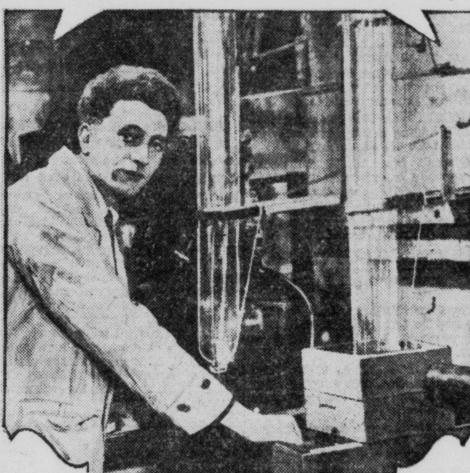

Made when he recently reviewed the National Army on the anniversary of the founding of the Constitution of the German Republic, this photo of President Paul von Hindenburg, Germany's "Iron Man," conveys an impression of stability and strength in the midst of his country's political chaos. In the background is the triumphal column, while to the right is the monument to Bismarck, another Iron Man in Germany's history.

Ocean Soloist Sees Gay Gotham

Of course every visitor to New York simply must see one of the night clubs for which Gay Gotham is famed at home and abroad. So here is Captain James A. Mollison (left), British trans-Atlantic soloist, in one of the joy spots on the "Great White Way" on the night he arrived from St. John. Mollison was the guest of George M. Mand (right), of Mayor Walker's reception committee. He plans to fly back to Europe after he has rested and overhauled his plane.

Modern Midas With Mercury

Though hitherto unknown in the scientific world, Heinz von Bohndorff (above), German scientist, has aroused international interest with his claim of having found a method of transmuting mercury into gold. Such claims have been made before, but the fact that the "Notgemeinschaft Detscher Wissenschaft," Germany's most distinguished forum of savants, has decided to hold an investigation, gives von Bohndorff's claim a serious aspect. He is shown in his Berlin laboratory.

Captured Leader of Revolt

Captured while attempting to leave the country following the collapse of his revolt against the new Republic of Spain. General Jose Sanjurjo is shown (at left) as he entered Madrid under arrest. Well known as a former friend of the exiled King Alfonso. Sanjurjo is a former Governor of Spanish Morocco. It is believed he will be executed for his part in the recent uprising.

ago make a total of 40, representing as many churches. A list of the county helpers is being prepared now and will be announced soon. They will be appointed in all the churches and granges

No definite dates have yet been set for the donation days but they will likely take place in late October. As in former years the food gifts will be collected together in a downtown storeroom and in the lobby of the Jameson Memorial hospital. At the close of the campaign they will be on display in the hospital lobby.

This splendid movement led by the Hospital Aide Society has helped greatly to alleviate food supply expenses at the great institution during past winters. It has also provided a large number of patients with delicious home-made jellies and des-

Charley Root Will Oppose Dazzy Vance Today As Teams Start Important Series

LEAGUE LEAD IS BEING FOUGHT FOR

(International News Service) CHICAGO, Aug. 24.--Chicago was gripped by something akin to world's series fever today when the Cubs, leaders in the National league, opened a series of three games with the Brooklyn Dodgers, running in second place.

It was expected that more than 25,000 fans would witness the first contest. The weather was ideal for baseball, warm and clear with practically no wind.

Charley Root, star of the Cubs hurling squad, was slated to be on the mound for the home team today, having been given plenty of cradle to keep the black dwarfs rest in preparation for his crucial assignment. Guy Bush probably will pitch for Chicago tomorrow, with Low Warnecke scheduled to polish off the series on Friday. Vance and Root

Dazzy Vance was expected to pitch for the visitors. Both camps radiated optimism. Charley Grimm, who yesterday signed a contract to continue as Cubs manager in 1933, was particularly hopeful. "They can't stop us from winning that pennant now," he declared. Max Carey was no less confident in behalf of the Dodgers.

"Of course we can't drag them These pictures, just taken, show show, left, above, the president on the mountain stream which runs he pointed out," "but we ought to be down to second place in this series,"

Walter Johnson Is Too Mild And May Pay Penalty

Johnson Go And Get Manager Who Has Some "Fire"

"BIG TRAIN" IS

By DAVIS J. WALSH International News Service Sports Dodgers UIS Writer

NEW YORK, Aug., 24.-Twenty five years of faithful service in baseball, it seems, is soon to be rewarded in the customary manner. Walter Johnson, as definitely associated with Washington as Pennsylvania avenue and the monument, is to be cast off at the end of the year in favor of a manager who can be depended upon not to be too nice a human being and, in this way, earn the respect of his fellow men. At least, this is the generally accepted PIRATES CLOSE story, rapidly gaining credence by reason of its persistence and the tacit agreement furnished and suggested by the silence of Mr. Clark Griffith.
